PRESS REVIEWS

"I've been listening to the debut album, Time, Time, Time, Time, Time from Midwestern multi-instrumentalist Jack Spann for days, and I treasure it more with every spin." "...a timeless sound that recalls early Joe Jackson ("If I'm Ever in Love"), Billy Joel ("Songman") and Ben Folds ("Beautiful Day"). Charming melodies and clever wordplay propel these songs that are simultaneously laced with cynicism and joy"

Michael Popke - Sea of Tranquility [4.5 Stars out of 5] ★★★★★

"it's "Time" that fully fathoms the abyss of Spann's emotions. Beginning as a spiritual, pain to the surface, the song is gaining momentum in a swirl of velvet delivery of traditional blues and Hassidic wail, but right after the woes of "Everybody Is Stained" add a deep dynamic groove to the already moving record, the tears in "Just A Breakdown" are ones of elation. ...here's a riveting record - hopefully first of many."

Dmitry Epstein - Let It Rock [5 Stars out of 5] ★★★★★

"...rolling piano and melodic delivery puts Spann on the piano bench firmly between Billy Joel and Elton John. The dramatic organ fills are reminiscent of the interchange one hears between Procol Harum's Gary Brooker and Matthew Fischer." After three tracks, I found myself bobbing my head along with the beat, absorbing the music as much as listening to it."...The whole album is littered with very hummable tunes."

Ken Raisenen - From The Vaults - Ontonagon Herald

"Piano Powerhouse Jack Spann Puts Out a Mysterious, Kinetic Debut Album" - "...Spann's precise, pointillistic riffage brings to mind Tony Banks' work with Genesis during their early 70s peak with Peter Gabriel."... "With its surreal, trippy lyrics and rapidfire baroque-rock piano and organ, My Dinosaur echoes current-day keyboard-driven psychedelic bands like Fever The Ghost" ..."pouncing, Joe Jackson-inflected parlor pop of Breakdown, an explosive coda to the mysteries that have been percolating up to this point.

delarue - NEW YORK MUSIC DAILY

"... Spann certainly is a really incredible pianist, hands moving forward and backward along the keyboard, timeless, a crazed hourglass. ...An ingenious blend of talent, humor and earnest creativity. ... This disk provides an introduction to knowing a truly unique talent.

Lino Terlati - Music Journalist - [past Ciao 2001 - Drive Magazine] Savona, Italy

"... [Time] showcases Spann's range as a keyboardist, as well as his passionate and multi-layered writing. Each song bursts with creativity, and soon, the listener is transfixed."

Brownie Marie - AXS.com

Piet Levy - TAP -Milwaukee Journal Sentinel

"... catchy pop ditties with an illuminating sound" "...an unpretentious album that delivers, as its title suggests, time and time again" "... an ideal showcase for Spann's skills."

Lee Zimmerman - No Depression
