Piano Powerhouse Jack Spann Puts Out a Mysterious, Kinetic Debut Album

by delorus

Jack Spann is one of New York's most in-demand keyboardists. He's not related to Otis Spann, but from the way he plays blues, you'd think he might be. He has Carnegie Hall-class chops and can do stride piano and ragtime as well as anyone in town. But as popular a sideman as Spann is – he collaborated with David Bowie and has been playing with noir icon L.L.

It's about "Time" for singer-songwriter Jack Spann and MKE producer Gary Tanin

Published April 20, 2016 at 2:04 p.m. Milwaukee music producer Gary Tanin has a special friendship with the late David Bowie's longtime producer Tony Visconti, a friendship that started back in 1993 in the long gone and forgotten Atlantis of the Internet: CompuServe chat rooms. "He was in this producer's forum," Tanin recalled. "I had been posting things in there, and that's how we first got connected. One thing led
